

1849 State of Desert

The first state legislative session was authorized for 90 days and produced 60 bills to send to the governor. Many of them established the basic organization of state courts and offices, election reform (including the secret ballot) and codification of laws. Railroad regulation was rejected, although the governor supported it.

First Students to Attend Brigham Young Academy (Dates Unknown)

ca 1876

The first two students from Wasatch County to attend the Brigham Young Academy in Provo, Utah, were Sarah Eliza Bronson and Joseph Royal Murdock.

Sarah was the daughter of Edwin Ruthven Bronson and Mary Cook Bronson, born July 4, 1858. Sarah was proud to study under the German Professor, Karl G. Maeser. She later married William Bonner, son of George Edmundson Bonner.

Joseph Royal Murdock was the son of Nymphus Coridon and Sarah M. Barney Murdock. He was born in Salt Lake City, Utah, 11 August 1858.
